Noaman had "co-signed" the policy for Nawaf al-Hazmi. Mr. Dayhoff had been advised by a citizen that al-Hazmi purchased automobile insurance from an agent of the Farmers' Group by the name of Linda Yacoub. Her husband, Saleh Yacoub was also an agent for Farmers' Group. Saleh Yacoub was a partner in two San Diego service stations with Osama Mustafa, one which was a Texaco Station on Spring Street in La Mesa, CA.
